

OUR 65 YEARS TOGETHER

Cliff and Josephine Gander
October 13, 1937

Happy 65th Anniversary

It has been a joy putting this memory book together for your Anniversary. Having spent the last 44 years as part of your family this project has brought back many memories. All the hours going thru your photo albums and scanning the pictures I thought would be special to you, were also a walk down memory lane for me and a chance to relive those years. The hardest part was deciding just what pictures to use. I hope I haven't missed any important dates that were special to you in raising your four children and enjoying all your grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A special thanks to Don, Teresa and Cathy Jo for being my proof readers.

May you share many more years enjoying your life together.

We love you,

Don & Liz

MY MARRIED LIFE

I married Clifford Robert Gander on October 13, 1937 in Holy Rosary Church in Monroe City, Mo, at 9 o'clock in the morning with Rev. Edward E. Connelly officiating. My sister Lillian was my bridesmaid and Harry Combs Saunders was Cliff's best man. Mother cooked a wedding breakfast for us and we left Monroe City about noon on our honeymoon to Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. We had borrowed $250.00 to get married on and bought a wool rug, a sofa and chair with part of it. We took $35.00 on the trip of 5 days and came home with 35 cents. Cliff's parents had planned to move to town and let us live in their big house. (They didn't get to move for a week after we returned from our honeymoon). We were given a chivalry one night soon afterwards.

I had much to learn that first year! It wasn't easy for someone who had grown up in town and quite often slept late, to have to get up before daylight and work until dark, taking care of chickens, raising garden, canning, cooking for threshers etc. Cliff had a hired hand, Bradley Bellamy, from March 1st until November who lived with us. Since it was the home place, we had lots of family there often. On top of learning how to be a farmer's wife, my first child came along early, on Thursday, June 23, 1938. Donald Joseph was born at dawn and weighed 8 lbs., while Cliff was gone to town after Dr. Kibbee. (We didn't have a phone at that time) I had planned to go to the hospital and had a few things packed in my suitcase, but since we were pinched for money all spring, my order of baby clothes hadn't come yet. Cliff brought his mother back with him and she had to give the baby a bath in fresh country lard, and we used a pillowcase for a diaper. Since there was no baby bed ready she laid him in my suitcase until Frances came down later in the day and brought her baby basket. Lil came out that night and slept with me. The baby kept choking on mucus in his throat. Dad Gander and Bruce had come out the day before the baby was born and the men picked up the bed with me in it and turned it around so I would be between the two windows. This was in the downstairs bedroom. My mother came out that weekend to help take care of me and baby. Edith had been there and Virginia Simms was there to help a few days. The weather turned cool that weekend and mother tried to warm the baby in front of the oven, but finally convinced me to let him cuddle up close to me. (He had turned blue and she was worried)

So now I was not only a farmer's wife but a new mother! I had been picking and canning peas that week so I was so grateful for the two weeks bed rest that the Doctor gave a new mother in those days. They wouldn't let you get up on your feet for 10 days and you were supposed to take it easy for 6 weeks. Edith came out and helped with the work. A little later Bradley's girlfriend, Rachel Browning came and helped me with the baby and work. There was plenty of work to do, too. Even had threshers to cook for when Don was only 3 weeks old. That meant about 30 people for dinner. Edith came out and helped as luckily Don was a good baby and thrived on breast milk and gained weight very fast. So by our first anniversary he was a big fat happy baby. About that time Bradley and Rachael moved to Peoria, Illinois (they had married in August). We were alone again! Mother and Dad Gander moved back out to Harvey's house that fall. Harvey was working in Mexico at the time.

We lived on the home place for 3 years. Then 2 weeks before Paul was born, we moved up to Harvey's house and the folks moved back home.

Paul was due on February 2, 1941 but he was born on Tuesday February 4, 1941 at 8:45 a.m. Mother had come out on Sunday to be with me. Linnie Buckwalter had walked over to visit the afternoon before and I asked her to stay all night. Mother called Doc. Kibbee out about 2 o'clock in the night but the pains stopped after he came. He brought his office girl, Pearl Olson with him. Mother fixed breakfast for them while they were waiting on the baby, who arrived at 8:45 a.m. I had picked out a girls name "Ruth Ann" but didn't have a boys name in mind, so I asked for the prayer book and looked at the Litany of the Saints and picked out St. Paul to be his namesake. He was christened Paul Robert. He weighed 8 lbs. But really didn't look as big as Don had. I was immediately glad that he was a boy so that Don would have a little brother to play with. Don was 2 1/2 years old but wasn't talking much yet. There was a deep snow on the ground. Cliff went after Pearl Nall to take care of me the first two weeks, and then Linnie Buckwalter came for a while to help. That spring and summer Cliff farmed 7 different farms and worked long hours, Paul had the colic and cried a lot. He crawled at 5 1/2 months and started walking at 8 1/2 months. When he was ten months old I took him to Hannibal (On Pearl Harbor Day) and stayed all night with Bernadette and took him to a doctor and found that he had a hernia rupture. I made him a truss, which he had to wear for several years.

When Paul was 2 1/2 years old, I was blessed with a baby girl at 4 a.m. Thursday September 2, 1943. I named her Delores Hope. Jackie happened to be home at the time so she came and helped the first day, then Linnie Buckwalter stayed with me for 3 weeks. Hope was real cute with lots of long black hair, which I had fun making it curl. Don was five by then and took some care of her. I enjoyed making little girls clothes. I had made suits and shirts and pants for the boys, but now I had a little girl to dress up in frills.

In August of 1944 we sold our herd of cattle (due to the dry season) and we made a down payment on our 160-acre farm, which had been Robert Corder's farm before Lomax had bought it 4 years earlier. So when Hope was a year and a half old we moved into this big house in January 1945. It was so cold at the time and we had to burn green soft wood. There were mornings when the tea kettle on the cold stove had ice in it. I froze my heels in the house that winter. It was war time and we were on daylight time so poor little Don, who was 6 years old in the first grade had to walk out to the black top (over a mile) by moonlight in the deep snow to meet the school bus. He finished that year at Stone School after starting at Four Corners. The next year he rode the bus on into town and attended Holy Rosary School. I was busy the next few years, furnishing this big house with used furniture, wallpapering, along with gardening and raising chickens.

Except for short trips on our anniversaries, we had never had a big trip until August 1951 when Cliff and I, Harvey and Sue, Dad and Mother Gander were gone 3 weeks to California and left the little boys to do the milking. I felt guilty about that as Don was only 13 and Paul was 10 years old. The next year we took all three children along with Della and Tom to Yellowstone and Canada.

By 1955, I had long since given up on having any more children. Hope had always prayed for a little sister so she was delighted when I discovered I was 4 1/2 months pregnant. I took Hope to Texas to visit Lil and Orville and 6 children. Hope was 12 years old when Alice Bell was born on Monday, January 9, 1956 in St. Elizabeth Hospital in Hannibal, Missouri at 5 minutes to six o'clock in the evening. She was a big baby, weighing 9 lbs. 2 oz. I had just turned 39 years old in November so I took the time to enjoy this baby.

She was so alert and learned quickly. She did cry a lot her first few months from colic or something. She started walking at 10 months and soon got to be daddy's girl following him around the farm.

Don graduated from high school in May 1956 when Alice was almost 6 months old and he soon left for St. Louis to work for McDonnell's Aircraft for 6 months before he joined the Air Force in December 1956. He stayed in for 22 1/2 years, so Alice never really got to know her big brother, very well. Don married Elizabeth Ketsenburg, December 27, 1958 and they had 4 children in 3 1/2 years. Joseph Paul-March 8, 1960, Maria Louise-July 12, 1961, Teresa Lee-August 16, 1962, Michael Eugene-August 24, 1963. Two years later November 2, 1965 they had another baby girl, Sheila Ann still born who is buried at Jacksonville, Arkansas (in November 1996 Sheila was moved to Holy Rosary Cemetery in Monroe City, Missouri).

Paul graduated in May 1959. He stayed at home and milked cows and helped farm for a few years but went into the Army in November 1963 for 2 years. He stayed at home for a while after getting out of the Army and started working at Diemakers Inc.

Hope graduated from Holy Rosary High School in 1961. She attended Ottumwa Heights Junior College in Iowa one year, then went to Columbia Mo. University a while before she married Joseph B. Goodwin on her 20th birthday, September 2, 1963. Alice was 7 years old by then and was her flower girl. (Paul was working in Colorado but drove home for it). Don and Liz couldn't come as they had a new baby boy, Michael born 1 week before.

After Paul started working at Diemakers in February 1966 he bought a house in Monroe City and married Anne Cordelia Yates on December 27, 1969. Since then they have had six children. Andrea Yvonne born February 10, 1971, Aaron Robert born June 1, 1972, Renee Marie born June 28, 1975, Martin Paul born November 15, 1976, Mona Jo born January 22, 1979, and Amelia May born May 1, 1982.

Alice graduated from Monroe City High School in May 1974, as Salutatorian of her class. (Holy Rosary had closed by then). She attended Kirksville College the summer of 1973 and 1974. She transferred that fall to the University of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri. Later she transferred to Texas University in Austin, Texas and got her BS Degree there in Electrical Engineering in 1978. She married Jules Henry Dreyfuss in Shreveport, Louisiana, May 24, 1976. They separated a year and a half later. She worked in Dallas, Texas for a while, then came to Monroe City and worked at Diemakers a year or so before moving to Spartanburg, South Carolina, where she started working for Michelin Tire Corporation. She married Keith Young, September 2, 1981. They lived in Greenville, South Carolina and divorced a few years later. On January 6, 1988 she married Joel Dobson in the Virgin Island. They lived in Greenville, South Carolina until September 1988, when they were transferred to Clemont Ferrand, France by Michelin Tire Company for 2 years. They returned to Greenville, South Carolina and live at 210 White Water Court, Greer, Carolina where they bought a house.

Don and Liz bought Cliff's home place in 1977.
